

Come Join Us For Our Wildlife Photography Workshop at Mississippi River Eco Center

On March 9th, 2013 join us for our FREE

Wildlife Photography Workshop entitled---Wildlife Photography: A Sharing.

The workshop will be held at the new Mississippi River Eco Center at Rock Creek Marina, just south of Camanche off of Highway 67

The event will begin at 11:00 am and conclude at 2:45 pm
There will be a break for lunch which will be available at the facility.

Speakers include:

“The Grass Isn’t Always Greener” by Julie Malake

Julie can teach us all that we don’t have to travel to the four corners of the earth to capture some outstanding photographs.

“From Good to Great” by Stan Bousson

Stan will share tips and suggestions that his years of work have brought.

“Lessons from the Birdman of Augustana” by Steve Hager

Steve will share information about bird behavior that can be useful when we hit the field intending to get some great bird shots.

“Composition-a Stepping-Stone to Quality Photos” by Robyn Smith

Robyn will illustrate how knowledge of the critical elements of composition can lead to more exceptional pictures.

“Wildlife—Up Close and Personal” by Paul Riewerts

Paul will talk about the tools and techniques required to take photos of the wildlife that is often ignored.

“Here Comes The Judge” by Bill Delp

Bill will talk about things that a judge looks for in contest photos. He will help us to put our best foot forward in future.

“Wildlife Photography—Fields of Opportunity” by Brian Tugana

Brian will share tips he has garnered and will talk about the interesting paths that wildlife photography have opened up for him.

Paid for by

Sponsored by

Designed by Courtney Blaber

For questions or more information call 563-847-7202

